Greetings Fellow NEPGA Professionals,

Spring has finally sprung and I hope that everyone is getting off to a good start this season. The first few weeks of each season are exciting for all of us, but can also be trying as well. With limited staff and enthusiastic golfers come even longer days for our professionals. Rest assured that in no time reinforcements will be here for all of us and hopefully we can take a nice deep breath and play some golf!

Pro-Pro Match Play History

Our centennial year has already become one for the record books. As if the PGA of America and the NEPGA turning 100 years old was not enough, Troy Pare, PGA and his partner Jeff Martin, PGA have become the first players in NEPGA history to win the Pro-Pro Match Play Championship 5 times! Apparently there is something magical about LeBaron Hills for these two fine champions. Bob Darling, PGA and John Hickson, PGA should be commended for their efforts to end Troy and Jeff’s reign over this championship. They turned in a bold effort and my guess is they will be gunning for Mr. Martin and Mr. Pare next year.

Special thanks goes to Sandy Jablonski of Bobby Jones, Ollie and Dee Hallet of Imperial Headwear & Golf Max, Jim Lynch of Prize Possessions and the PGA Tour for supporting this historic championship.

Centennial Video

Speaking of history...if you have not done so yet, make sure to click over to the NEPGA.com and view the fantastic Centennial Video posted to our front page. This historic take on our section’s first 100 years is a wonderful journey through the decades and is filled with great photographs of our section’s forefathers, most legendary players and dedicated staff members that have all made the NEPGA the best section in the PGA of America.

It is very inspiring and also quite emotional. So many men and women have dedicated their lives to building this section and they are all showcased in this one collaboration. I have watched it at least 5 times now and each time I walk away more proud to serve as your president and follow in the footsteps of the innovators, champions and leaders of the last 100 years.

Hartford Super Regional

In late April the three candidates for Secretary of the PGA of America traveled to Hartford, CT to meet with section officers and staff. Current PGA of America Secretary Suzy Whaley, PGA and Tom Brawley from PGA National were on hand to moderate this fine event and help educate us more about the candidates so we may make an informed decision at the Annual Meeting in New York this fall. In attendance with myself were NEPGA Vice President Ron Bibeau, PGA, NEPGA Secretary Allan Belden, PGA and Executive Director Mike Higgins. Russ Libby, PGA, Jim Richerson, PGA, and Rick Murphy, PGA should be commended for their efforts in running quality campaigns. All three of these PGA Professionals are passionate, driven and very well versed in the issues facing the PGA Professional today. Running for national office is a full time job in its own right and it was amazing to see how they all balance their everyday lives in order to help make our association bigger and better.

Tournament Time

As I previously mentioned, the NEPGA tournament season has kicked off. Tournament play is vital to the success of our section and its members. Participation was very good last year, but I think we can do even better. Let’s all set a goal to play in at least one more tournament this year. Whether it is a section championship or a chapter pro am, if we all play in just one more event, we can grow participation by 1,000 rounds! All of the NEPGA and Chapter events are posted online so visit the website and mark your calendars. Also, don’t forget to download the NEPGA App and follow all of the scores from our events.

This is sure shaping up to be a special season. If there is anything I can do for you please do not hesitate to contact me. It is my pleasure to serve as your president and I look forward to hearing from you.

Respectfully,

Rob Jarvis, PGA
New England PGA President
Progress. If you were one of the many New England PGA Professionals or Section Partners at the Spring meeting at Andover CC on April 12th, you heard that word mentioned quite a bit. Progress in your own facility, progress at your own job, or even progress in yourself personally. The New England PGA certainly has seen some major progress over the last 100 years. I personally love progress and I always enjoy looking at where we were, just to see how far we have come. Being a part of the centennial process has been a wonderful experience for me. I have traveled down memory lane and viewed old pictures, old documents and old tournament results. It was great to see our NEPGA Legends in their youth, and also learn how their dedication so many years ago, molded the New England PGA into the success we see today.

We have been working very closely with NEPGA Centennial book author Gary Larabee to complete our book, and our deadline is on target to have these in hand by the fall meetings. We have also been working closely with each chapter to designate a Chapter Pro-Am as a Centennial Pro-Am, which we will try and enhance and make just a bit more special. Be on the look-out for the Centennial Pro-Am in your Chapter!

The deadlines for the three major NEPGA Championships have all changed. The PGA of America has allowed us to extend the registration deadlines for the NEPGA Section Championship, the Seniors Championship as well as the Assistants Championship. These deadlines will be closer to the dates of the events and will hopefully allow for better planning. Please remember that registration will not be accepted after the deadline, so be sure to not to miss one of our major’s in our Centennial Season!

For me, the May Issue of our Newsletter always signifies the start of the golf season at the New England PGA. The weather warms up a bit, all our Chapters are now off and running, and the Section transitions from seminars, employment and meetings to tournaments. It is also when I am able to have more interaction with New England PGA Professionals. I have, and always will try to attend as many tournaments as possible, because this is a great opportunity to interact with 40, 50 even 100 PGA Professionals in one day. There is always a conversation about employment, a discussion about an event or simply how things are going at your facility. I hope if there is ever anything I can help you with, please pull me aside at an event, or simply give me a call at the Section office. I am happy to help in any way I can.

Have a terrific spring and a successful season.

Respectfully,

Michael Higgins
New England PGA Executive Director

It’s been quite a while since Jeff Martin, PGA and Troy Pare, PGA have lost at LeBaron Hills. In fact, you have to go back to 2014 in the Semi-Finals to find it, where Brian Owens, PGA and Bob Tramonti, PGA beat them 1 Up before losing in the Finals to Frank Dully, PGA and Steve Bramlett, PGA. Since then Martin and Pare have shot a combined 16-under in stroke play qualifying, their average start in match play is the 1.5 seed, and their average margin of victory in match play is 2 & 1, not including their first round byes.

It is safe to say they enjoy LeBaron Hills, with a 45% win percentage since it moved there in 2006. Victories in 2007, 2010, 2012 and 2015 put them in elite company, as only a few players in the 30-year history had ever won it four times, and none with the same partner. A win this year would put Jeff and Troy in rarer air, plus more Wogan Player of the Year Awards and Section Championships combined than Martin & Pare.

As good as Monday’s weather was, compared to how bad Tuesday’s weather was, Wednesday topped them both. Chilly temperatures greeted players but was countered with sunny skies. The Semi-Final matches were first up, a change from prior years due to Tuesday’s weather delay. In the first match of the day, Hickey & Farland battled with Darling & Hickson, but ultimately were defeated 2 Up. In the second match, Martin & Pare had their hands full with Arvanitis & Berberian. After jumping out to a 2 Up lead at the turn, Martin & Pare let the New Hampshire duo back in and they were able to force extra holes. As they did in the Finals in 2015, when faced with extra holes Martin & Pare seemed to find another gear, and Pare calmly rolled in a 50’ birdie putt to close out the match. When asked about the putt to clinch the match, Pare said “I was just telling Jeff how we had lost holes to long putts, now it’s our turn to make one”. And so he did.

The Finals match was a rematch of a 2012 Quarterfinal match which saw Martin & Pare advance in 20 Holes, which had Hickson & Darling hoping for a different result this time around. The match started slow with halved pars on the first two holes. After the formalities, the par-5 3rd hole got things going as Martin made eagle to give he and Pare a 1up lead. It would be a lead they would not give up. As Hickson & Darling struggled to find momentum, Martin & Pare continued to feed off each other and pour in birdies, playing the front nine in 4-under par which was good for a 4 Up lead.

With victory in sight and an early after-noon off, Hickson & Darling had other plans and started the back nine with three consecutive birdies to close their gap to 3 down through 12 holes. Another birdie on the par-4 14th narrowed the deficit to two with four to play, and the Maine Professionals were gaining. But as great match players do, Martin & Pare had been here before and knew they needed to make a move to squash their opponents momentum. With another birdie opportunity at the par-5 15th, Pare took it into his own hands and did one better, making an eagle three to restore the lead to 3 up with 3 to play. A win on the par-4 16th sealed the 4 & 2 victory, and kicked off the next 100 years of the New England Section right where they left off the last 100. All in all it was a great match, with Martin & Pare shooting 8-under best ball and Hickson & Darling shooting 5-under with the usual concessions.

Once again a special thank you to our outstanding partners: Sandy Jablonski & Bobby Jones, Jim Lynch & Prize Possessions, and Ollie & Dee Hallet from GolfMax & Imperial Headwear, along with the PGA TOUR for their support. Also, a special thank you to LeBaron Hills and owner Frank Will, and PGA Professionals Tom Rooney and Lou Katsos for their hospitality.

The PGA Annual Operations Survey is now available on PGA.org. The survey is currently available for the highest-ranked PGA Professional at each facility, or to any other golf professional with proxy rights for their facility. We encourage you to complete the survey as it allows you to compare your top-line revenues and expenses against other "like" green grass and off-course facilities and also serves as a value guide during the budgeting process. Additionally, data from this survey is used to support state and national economic impact studies which are vital to telling the story about golf's impact on the economy.

Information gathered through this service is strictly confidential to individual facility management and is presented in aggregate with other facilities for reporting purposes.

Members will automatically receive up to two MSR credits upon completion of the survey if submitted by the deadline of May 31st.

To improve your survey experience, many areas have been streamlined to ensure that you only answers questions that are relevant to the operational areas you manage. Additionally, there is a downloadable version of the survey on the Annual Operations Survey landing page that you can use as a worksheet to simplify your online experience and save time.

Membership Dues – Important Information!

Dues invoices are released to PGA.org and everyone with an email address should have received an email notification last week advising them that they can view, print and/or pay the FY2016/2017 dues online. Those with an email address will not receive a printed invoice.

For those individuals whose employer pays their dues, they should log onto PGA.org to print an invoice to submit to their employer for payment processing. Please encourage anyone who pays by check to have their member/apprentice number included in the "Note" portion of the check and/or on the check stub.

DUES PROXY OPTION: Also, new this year is the ability for members and apprentices to assign a dues proxy, giving access to one other individual (such as employer, supervisor or agent) to pay dues on his/her behalf. This process was developed as a one to one relationship so each individual will need to assign their own proxy, if so desired.

ACH ONLINE PAYMENT OPTION: In addition, there is also an online ACH Payment (Automated Clearing House) option – an online Bank authorization to issue a payment to the PGA for dues from either a checking or savings account. The member/apprentice will need to input the Name on their Account, Account Number, and the Bank Routing Number. The bank will then generate a transaction.

Those individuals without an email address were sent a printed invoice last week.

The due date for this invoice is June 30, 2016 to avoid suspension and late fee assessment.

IMPORTANT: Payments by check should be mailed to: PO Box 31089, Palm Beach Gardens, FL 33420-1089. Although payment by check is acceptable, paying by credit/debit card via PGA.org is the preferred method.

ACH Payments for Purse Winnings

This is worth repeating! As we begin the Centennial Tournament Season, again a reminder about the advantages of receiving your purse winnings as a direct deposit either into your checking or savings account. Why wait to receive your money? Why risk the possibility that the check may get lost in the mail? Why wait for the check to be sent or forwarded to a new address? Why have a stop payment fee deducted from your check when the Section has to stop payment because you never received the check?

The SIMPLE solution is to have the money deposited directly into your account. Please click here for the ACH Payment Form and follow the instructions on the form. If you need any guidance, please call the section office at 508.869.0000 or email jstuart@pgahq.com.
NEPGA Through the Years

Susan Hudson: A Woman Shall Lead Them

After making history with the hiring of Wemyss in 1970, the Section added a new chapter with the naming of assistant executive director Susan Hudson as executive director in 1990. Rules guru Edward “Buddy” Young continued a memorable tenure as tournament director.

In the first major restructuring of the Section’s administrative operations since Wemyss arrived, Jack Bates expanded his role as on-site tournament support and head of sponsor relations, Brenda Hutchinson was promoted to executive secretary and Lori Cassola became secretary/receptionist.

“This was an attempt to slice up the operational pie to make certain everyone could do his/her very best job while also smoothly meshing all these varied talents,” Hudson said at the time. “It was successful.”

The year 1991 was a noteworthy time as well because of the six men who became new Section officers. Among them, Kurt Sokolowski was the new president, future president Jack Neville became secretary-treasurer and future presidents Don Lyons and Jim Remy became vice-presidents, Remy later becoming the Section’s first member to be elected National President.

Hudson’s appointment came twelve years after she joined the Section as Wemyss’s executive secretary. “I never imagined January 8, 1979 would be the start of a thirty-year career with the NEPGA,” she recalled. “George and I made a great team. He often described me to others as his right arm. George initially seemed strict and gruff, but that was just a front. He had a heart of gold and carried a passion for the Section I will always remember. His job was to bring the NEPGA up to a standard of professional business practices not yet attained and he succeeded.”

Hudson might not have become a part of NEPGA history had she not met her future husband, Bruce, a Peabody, Massachusetts native, in Turkey, where Bruce was serving in the Air Force and Susan was living with her parents, since her dad had a civilian job with the same branch of the military. Susan and Bruce married the day after Bruce was discharged and soon relocated to Bruce’s native North Shore.

Hudson noted the inestimable value provided by Wemyss’s wife Dee, who worked side by side with her husband wherever the job took him, from tournaments to local and national meetings to merchandise shows. “Dee was as devoted to the NEPGA as George, and that’s saying a great deal. I never saw a married couple who loved their jobs working alongside each other more.”

The NEPGA staff received a major boost when Edward “Eddie” Carbone came on board in 1993 as the new director of operations and Ron Green, a PGA professional, was named tournament manager.

“Times were changing,” Hudson noted, “but we’d had terrific people in place all along anyway. From Buddy Young and John Miller (40 years with the NEPGA) our key rules people, to long-time starter Al Raymond and back to Miller, who produced our yearbook for many, many years.

“Fact is Eddie provided an energy we’d never had before and our tournament schedule and sponsorship took off under his leadership.”

The Section was progressing nicely under the new-era staff, while the man who made it all possible, the foundation builder, was in retirement in Florida with wife Dee. George fell seriously ill in early 1993 and on his seventy-fifth birthday, March 27, died from an aneurism.

“Everyone in the NEPGA family took George’s death hard,” Hudson remembered. “We all felt a terrible loss, but at the same time knew we must carry on and keep improving the NEPGA in every way we could in honor of George.”

The Section offices relocated later that same year to Hillview Country Club in North Reading. The NEPGA continued growing. Carbone instituted an intern program and established the Junior Golf program.

“We expanded membership services,” Hudson said. “Club relations and office operations flourished.”

When Cyprian Keyes Country Club owner Bob Frem offered to provide comfortable space for a new NEPGA home office in 1998, Hudson accepted. At the same time, Carbone was promoted to executive director and Hudson became program director, allowing her to work out of her home in Manchester By-the-Sea, Massachusetts. She performed those duties for twelve years before retiring the end of 2008, but not before receiving the George S. Wemyss Award in 1996 and becoming an honorary life member of the NEPGA in 2005.

Hudson’s contributions to the Section were recognized long before that, in fact, when the tournament committee established the Hudson Cup tournament for PGA apprentices in 1987. It continues its annual run to this day.

“I’ve been honored to work for the NEPGA all those years,” Hudson said. “The recognition I’ve received has been a bonus. To think I never was able to swing a golf club, but golf has always been my favorite spectator sport.”

Exemplary Partners  (a monthly feature in 2016)

Part I

The Rhode Island Chapter will open its 2016 schedule at Ledgemont – May 18th – for the CALLAWAY PRO-PRO SERIES sponsored by longtime loyal partner Peter Guild who also supports the next PRO PRO SERIES event at Hyannisport – June 15th. Spots are precious, register now! Peter adds $1,000 to each PRO PRO purse while also contributing $1,500 to each Chapter’s Championships. Simply, he is OUR Presenting Partner!

Part II

For the 6th consecutive year Mr. Jeff Moore, proprietor of The Lanes Bowl & Bistro (Mashpee Commons) and all three Bobby Byrnes Pubs on the Cape not only has sponsored two tournaments per year, but hosted the 2nd Annual CCPGA Bowling League over the winter months comprised of PRO led teams representing 10 clubs across the Cape!

Competitive Congrats

To:  Ledgemont’s PGA HP Troy Pare whom, along with partner Jeff Martin, PGA HP at Norton CC, captured their 5th PRO PRO MATCH PLAY TITLE at LeBaron Hills in late April.  Awesome!

To:  Cape Cod National’s PGA Assistant Gregg Richbourg who parlayed his 4th career ace into a stunning 3-shot victory over a good CCPGA field at Pocasset GC, firing 69 to win going away.  It was Gregg’s 2nd competitive hole-in-one, this one on the diabolical uphill 15th hole playing “only” 146 yards.  He hit 7-iron and it “never left the flag”, according to one of Gregg’s partners.  That hole is so severely uphill that the entire foursome spent several minutes looking for his ball before checking the hole, bringing up an interesting rule – ONCE THE BALL IS HOLED, all other rules are irrelevant...golfers may look for 10 minutes and still not incur a penalty if the ball is holed (except unduly delaying play!)

MAINE CHAPTER NEWS

Submitted by Maine Chapter President Jason Hurd, PGA

The 2016 Golf Season in Maine is off to a great start. After a mild winter, the month of April was good to the golfing population. Several of our courses have had earlier openings than usual and all was well until Mother Nature decided to dump a few inches of the white powder and interrupt our great start. The interruption was good timing in that our Chapter Spring Meeting was about to happen. The Woodlands Club in Falmouth played host to our meeting and several professionals took time out from their busy schedules to join us in the official kickstart to our season. A special thank you goes out to the Sponsors in attendance. We appreciate your support. Greg Ludes from Titleist, Bryan Saylor from FootJoy, Larry Kelly and Matt McDonald from Five Star Golf Cars, Don Groft from Yamaha and Jim Lynch from Prize Possessions. Thank you for joining us!

Congratulations to all the Chapter Award Winners that were announced at the Spring Meeting! Our Chapter has a great deal of talented golf professionals and the recipients are all deserving of the recognition. Our top honor given to the Golf Professional of the Year was presented to Tony Decker, PGA from the Purpodock Club. Congratulations!

Junior Golf Maine is a joint effort between the Maine Chapter, The First Tee of Maine, and the Maine State Golf Association to promote junior golf in Maine. This year our efforts were focused on growing the game with the Kidabaloo Events in Bangor and Portland. If success is measured in numbers, we nailed it. We introduced the game to some 5000+ kids at both locations combined. Thank you to Brian Bickford, PGA and the Chapter PGA Professionals who donated their time to help us promote the Game!
The Chapter has announced the purchase of some SNAG equipment that will be housed at Beaver Meadow Golf Course in Concord. It is available to members on a first-come, first-served basis. The equipment helps children learn the basic skills like running, jumping, skipping, throwing and catching. Atkinson CC also has SNAG in storage.

The Chapter also has announced that the board has proposed a plan to draw down excess funds by contributing money to worthwhile projects and charities. The plan is to donate $10,000 annually to five worthy causes in $2,000 lots.

Confirmed targets so far are:

The Webster House in Manchester which provides housing to troubled youths who are unable to live at home for some period of time.

Jen’s Friends Cancer Foundation in the Mount Washington Valley who provides supplemental financial assistance and other resources to cancer patients and their families.

The Pease Greeters Mission at the Pease International Airport which welcomes troops passing through on their way to or from Afghanistan or Iraq, or any other conflicts in any part of the world.

Prouty benefitting cancer research and patient services at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Norris Cotton Cancer Center.

The New Hampshire Chapter has been busy this off season conducting a number of education seminars including the following:

- New TTP Guidelines
- Junior League Golf Seminar
- Titleist 2016 Club Fitting Workshop
- Sam Putt Lab Seminar

The Chapter held its annual spring meeting of members on Thursday, April 7, 2016 at Intervale Country Club. Over 50 members were in attendance and witnessed presentations from NEPGA President Rob Jarvis, NEPGA Executive Director Mike Higgins, Michael Packard, PGA and from Chapter President Ken Hamel, Vice President Tim Loch and Tournament Manager Frank Swierz.

The first two pro-ams are in the books and the results are:

At The Oaks pro-am, four pros were tied for low professional at 1-over par: Cory Mansfield, Montcalm; Danny Kish, Eastman; Rich Berberian, Windham and Matt Arvanitis, Southern NH University.

At Laconia CC, Windham CC Teaching Pro Marc Spencer shot a 6-under par score of 66 to blitz the professional field. Host Pro Todd Rollins was second at 1-under par 71. Tied for third place with even par rounds of 72 were Mitch Jefferson, Ridgewood CC and Jason Malcolm, Dublin Lake Golf Club.

Martignetti Companies has signed on once again to be the title sponsor of the chapter’s pro-ams. This year’s brand is Hudson Whiskey.
Happy Spring! The VT Chapter is ramping up for what is going to be a great, busy summer. We started by hosting Vermont Golf Day at the Vermont State House. Our District Director, Dave Soucy, organized this great event. It entails a morning breakfast, followed by a quick stop in the legislative chambers, and finally some face time on the state house lawn, talking to and giving lessons to the legislators from around the state. I want to thank Dave Christy, PGA, Dave Pfannenstein, PGA, Dave Soucy, PGA, Jim Ironside, PGA, Steve Roger, PGA, and representatives from the VGA, VSWGA, and GCSSA for attending. It is a great way to keep our needs on the forefront of their minds.

We hosted our Spring Meeting and Pro Pro on May 2nd at Rutland C.C. I would like to thank Greg Nelson PGA for hosting this event yet again this year. Also I would like to thank Jim Mayo and his companies for sponsoring the meeting. Following the meeting was a pro pro and sponsor appreciation lunch and golf event. We gladly invited many of our tournament sponsors to join us. It is a great way to say thanks for their support.

A huge congrats to a Zack Wyman, PGA for being named NEPGA Golf Professional of the Year. Zack is nothing but a consummate professional in all ways. I have had the pleasure of being his partner in many events and consider him to be a huge influence on me personally and professionally.

Finally, I want to thank Dave Christy, PGA for his great work as our Operations Manager. Also my BOD Greg Nelson, PGA, Brian Gara, PGA, Matt Havers, PGA and Dave Pfannenstein, PGA as well as all the great PGA Professionals who serve and donate their time at the committee levels.
